The Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come; your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors.
And do not bring us to the time of trial, but rescue us from the evil one.
For the kingdom and the power and the glory are yours forever. Amen.

Next Week

The whole purpose of John the Baptist's ministry was to reveal the coming of the Messiah. He did such a great job, that even his own disciples followed Jesus! A bummer if John was worried about numbers... but he wasn't.

'Come and See' us next week as we look at the start of Jesus' ministry as he puts together his A-team! (See what I did there?) Don't you love it when a plan comes together?

First Evangelical Presbyterian Church Frankfort, Indiana

Sunday—January 14, 2018

“Shout for joy to the LORD, all the earth. Worship the LORD with gladness; come before him with joyful songs. Know that the LORD is God. It is he who made us, and we are his; we are his people the sheep of his pasture. Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; give thanks to him and praise his name. For the LORD is good and his love endures forever; his faithfulness continues through all generations.” Psalm 100
