Intercessory prayer is very important in the life of our congregation. ### The Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come; your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors.
And do not bring us to the time of trial, but rescue us from the evil one.
For the kingdom and the power and the glory are yours forever. Amen.

Next Week

John wrote his gospel account "so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name." With that in mind, John brings in 'witnesses' to prove his case. The first of which was an odd, scraggly outsider who dressed strangely, ate some crazy stuff, and was looking for a sign from God to show him who this Messiah was that he was to reveal.

Join us next week as we look at the interesting character and witness of John the Baptist. We may even bring some honey-coated locusts to enjoy. I hear they're quite nutritious.

EPC: A Global Movement of Evangelical Presbyterian Churches

First Evangelical Presbyterian Church Frankfort, Indiana

Sunday—January 7, 2018

"Long ago, God spoke to our ancestors through the prophets; now God has spoken to us by a Son. God made the world through the Son, who has been appointed heir of all things and the perfect reflection of God's glory. The Son is the exact representation of God's being, sustaining all things by his powerful Word. Praise God for the gift of His Son. We welcome the light of the world!"
