 - Schedule and lead practice sessions with pianist, musicians and vocal choirs as necessary
 - Coordinate with sound and media technicians in regards to weekly service needs
 - Coordinate preparation of slides necessary for congregational singing
 - Work with Pastor and Staff to develop a weekly flow sheet and worship bulletin

- Participate as needed in other worship opportunities in the life of the church, which may include, but are not limited to: Christmas Eve, Maundy Thursday or other Holy Week services, funerals, weddings, retreats, etc.
 - Recruit and rehearse with those who provide special music
 - Oversee maintenance of instruments, equipment, and music
 - Coordinate tuning for piano and organ
 - Maintain copyright and CCLI reporting and licensing

- Participate in monthly Worship, Planning, and Staff meetings

Essential Qualifications:

- Affirms the EPC's 'Essentials of our Faith' without exception (<https://epc.org/about/beliefs/>)
- Articulates a sense of calling to serve the Lord as the Director of Worship
- Strong competency and skillset in the musical arts
- Strong competency in leading congregational worship and worship teams
- Communicates well with leadership, volunteers, and congregation
- Competency with current worship software or ability/willingness to learn

Personal Qualities:

- Vibrant and growing relationship with Jesus Christ
- Spiritual gifts of leadership and administration
- Passion to lead others in Spirit filled worship

Job Summary:

- Reports to Head of Staff
- Four Sundays off per year
- Works 10-15 hours per week
